ABNER ALEJANDRO TINOCO, and KIKIT & MESS INVESTMENTS, LLC,

Defendants.

Case No: EP-21-CV-00237-DCG

Hon. David C. Guaderrama

CONSENT ORDER FOR PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION AGAINST DEFENDANT
ABNER ALEJANDRO TINOCO

1. On September 28, 2021, Plaintiff, Commodity Futures Trading Commission (“Commission” or “CFTC”) filed a Complaint for Injunctive and Other Equitable Relief and Penalties Under the Commodity Exchange Act (“Complaint”) (Docket Entry (“D.E.”) # 3) under seal against defendants Abner Alejandro Tinoco (“Tinoco”) and Kikit & Mess Investments, LLC (“Kikit”) (collectively, “Defendants”) seeking injunctive and other equitable relief for violations of anti-fraud provisions of the Commodity Exchange Act (“Act”), 7 U.S.C. §§ 6b(a)(1)(A), (C), 6o(1), 9(1) (2018), and Commission Regulations (“Regulations”) 17 C.F.R. §§ 5.2(b) and 180.1(a)(1)-(3).

2. Contemporaneously with the filing of the Complaint, Plaintiffs moved the Court on an emergency ex parte basis, for an order, pursuant to Section 6c(a) of the Act, and in accordance with Federal of Civil Procedure 65, that: (1) freezes the assets of Defendants, (2) grants the CFTC immediate access to the books, records, and other documents of Defendants and the authority to inspect and copy such records; (3) appoints a temporary receiver; and (4) grants

Plaintiff's motion for expedited discovery in advance of a preliminary injunction hearing. (D.E. ## 7 and 5)

3. On October 13, 2021, after reviewing the Plaintiff's Emergency Motion for an ex parte Statutory Restraining Order, the Appointment of a Temporary Receiver and a Preliminary Injunction ("SRO") (D.E. #7), the Court entered the SRO. (D.E. # 13) The SRO froze Tinoco's and Kikit's assets, prohibits them from destroying books and records and denying the Commission access to their books and records, and appointed a Temporary Receiver, Kelly Crawford of Scheef & Stone, LLP ("Temporary Receiver"). By separate order, the Court granted plaintiff's motion for expedited discovery in advance of a preliminary injunction hearing. (D.E. #14) The SRO also set a hearing on the Plaintiff's Motion for a Preliminary Injunction ("Motion") for October 20, 2021 and directed that the SRO remain in full force and effect until October 27, 2021 unless extended further by order of Court pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 65(b)(2).

4. On October 14, 2021, Plaintiff properly served Defendant Tinoco. (D.E. #25). On October 14, 2021, Plaintiff also properly served Defendant Kikit. (D.E. #26)

5. On October 15, 2021, Plaintiff filed an emergency motion that the preliminary injunction hearing be held remotely. (D.E. #17) On October 18, 2021, Defendant Tinoco filed an emergency motion for a continuance of the Preliminary Injunction hearing. (D.E. #21) On October 18, 2021, the Court entered an order granting a continuance of the preliminary injunction hearing and reset the hearing for October 27, 2021 at 2:00 pm via Zoom Videconference. (D.E. #22)

6. Defendant Tinoco, without admitting or denying the allegations of the Complaint for purposes of this Consent Order for Preliminary Injunction Against Defendant Abner Alejandro Tinoco("Order"), except as to jurisdiction over the parties and over the subject matter of this action and venue, which Defendant Tinoco admits, hereby consents to the entry of this Order.

7. Defendant Tinoco states that his consent is entered into voluntarily and that no promise or threat has been made by the Commission or any member, officer, agent, or representative thereof to induce him to consent to this Order. Further, Defendant Tinoco has no objection to the Receiver entering into a Consent Order for a Preliminary Injunction on behalf of Defendant Kikit as long as such Consent Order is without admitting or denying liability.

8. In consideration of the foregoing, and based on the entire record in this case, the Court finds that there is good cause to believe that a preliminary injunction is proper in this case to preserve the status quo; prevent the withdrawal, transfer, removal, dissipation or disposal of assets; prevent the destruction, alteration, or disposal of books and records and other documents; protect members of the public from loss and damage, and enable the Plaintiffs to fulfill their statutory duties in this civil enforcement action.

9. The Court hereby grants the Motion on the terms and conditions to which Plaintiff and Defendant Tinoco have stipulated, as set forth below.

I. DEFINITIONS

For the purposes of this Consent Order, the following definitions apply:

10. The term “assets” encompasses any legal or equitable interest in, right to, or claim to, any real or personal property, whether individually or jointly, directly or indirectly controlled, and wherever located, including but not limited to: chattels, goods, instruments, equipment, fixtures, general intangibles, effects, leaseholds mail or other deliveries, inventory, checks, notes, accounts (including, but not limited to, bank accounts and accounts at other financial institutions), credits, receivables, lines of credit, contracts (including spot, futures, options, or swaps contracts), insurance policies, and all funds, wherever located, whether in the United States or outside the United States.

11. The term “records” encompasses “documents” and “electronically stored information” as those terms are used in Fed. R. Civ. P. 34(a), and includes, but is not limited to, all writings, drawings, graphs, charts, photographs, sound recordings, images, and other data or other data compilations—stored in any medium from which information can be obtained or translated, if necessary, into reasonable usable form. The term “records” also refers to each and every such item in Defendants’ actual or constructive possession, including but not limited to: (i) all such items within the custody or control of any agents, employers, employees, or partners of the Defendants; and (ii) all items which Defendants have a legal or equitable right to obtain from another person. A draft or non-identical copy is a separate item within the meaning of the term. A record also includes the file and folder tabs associated with each original and copy.

12. “Defendants” refers to defendants Abner Alejandro Tinoco and Kikit & Mess Investments, and all persons insofar as they are acting in the capacity of Tinoco’s and/or Kikit’s agents, servants, successors, employees, assigns, and attorneys, and all persons insofar as they are acting in active participation with Tinoco and/or Kikit who receive actual notice of this Consent Order by personal service or otherwise, including electronic mail, facsimile, United Parcel Service, or Federal Express.

II. RELIEF GRANTED

THE PARTIES AGREE AND IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that:

A. Jurisdiction and Venue

13. The Defendants have been properly served with a Summons and a copy of the Complaint and Defendant Tinoco has consented to the entry of this Order.

14. This Court is authorized to enter a preliminary injunction and ancillary equitable relief against Defendant Tinoco pursuant to 7 U.S.C. §§ 13a-1 and 13a-2.

15. This Court has jurisdiction over Tinoco and the subject matter of this action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1331 (2018) (federal question jurisdiction) and 28 U.S.C. § 1345 (2018) (district courts have original jurisdiction over civil actions commenced by the United States or by any agency expressly authorized to sue by Act of Congress).

16. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction over this action under 28 U.S.C. § 1331 (2018) (federal question jurisdiction) and 28 U.S.C. § 1345 (2018) (district courts have original jurisdiction over civil actions commenced by the United States or by any agency expressly authorized to sue by Act of Congress).

17. 7 U.S.C. § 13a-1(a) (2018), authorizes the CFTC to seek injunctive and other relief against any person whenever it appears to the CFTC that such person has engaged, is engaging, or is about to engage in any act or practice constituting a violation of any provision of the Act or any rule, regulation, or other thereunder.

18. Venue properly lies with this Court pursuant to Section 6c(e) of the Act, 7 U.S.C. § 13a-1(e) (2018) because Defendants transacted business in this District, and certain of the acts and practices in violation of the Act and CFTC Regulations have occurred, are occurring, or are about to occur within this District, among other places.

19. Defendant Tinoco waives the entry of findings of fact and conclusions of law for purposes of this Consent Order pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 52(a)(2) and the Court accepts that waiver.

B. Prohibitions from Violating the Act, Regulations and From Engaging in Commodity-Related Activities

21. Pending further order of the court, Defendant Tinoco and his affiliates, agents, servants, employees, successors, assigns, attorneys, and all persons in active concert with him, directly or indirectly, are restrained and enjoined from:

- a. Trading on or subject to the rules of any registered entity (as that term is defined by Section 1a(40) of the Act, 7 U.S.C. § 1a(40) (2018));
- b. Entering into any transactions involving “commodity interests” (as that term is defined in Regulation 1.3, 17 C.F.R. § 1.3 (2020)) for accounts held in the name of Tinoco or for accounts in which Tinoco has a direct or indirect interest;

- g. Acting as a principal (as that term is defined in Regulation 3.1(a), 17 C.F.R. § 3.1(a) (2020)), agent, or any other officer or employee of any person registered, exempted from registration, or required to be registered with the CFTC, except as provided for in 17 C.F.R. § 4.14(a)(9).

C. Asset Freeze Order Prohibiting the Withdrawal, Transfer, Removal, Dissipation, and Disposal of Assts

22. Except as otherwise modified by this Order, the SRO (D.E. #13) shall remain in full force and effect.

23. The injunctive provisions of this Order shall be binding upon Defendants Tinoco , and upon any person acting in the capacity of agents, servants, employees, assigns, attorneys, and persons in active concert or participation with them including any successors thereof, of Defendants Tinoco , and upon any person who receives actual notice of this Order by personal service or otherwise insofar as he or she is acting in active concert or participation with Defendants Tinoco.

24. Defendants Tinoco and Kikit and their agents, servants, employees, assigns, attorneys, and persons in active concert or participation with them, including any successor thereof, who receive actual notice of this Order by personal service or otherwise, are immediately restrained and enjoined, except as otherwise ordered by this Court, from directly or indirectly withdrawing, transferring, removing, dissipating or otherwise disposing of any assets, wherever located, including Defendant Tinoco's and Kikit's funds, assets, including, but not limited to assets held in the names of Defendant Tinoco or Kikit, or in the name of Kikit & Mess Real Estate LLC or Kikit & Mess Exotics LLC or other property held outside the United States, in accordance with the Court's SRO and this Order.

25. At the request of the Receiver, Defendants Tinoco and Kikit and any other person who has possession, custody, or control of any of Defendants' funds, assets, or other property shall transfer possession of all funds, assets, or other property subject to this Order to the Receiver in accordance with the SRO and this Order.

26. The funds, assets, or other property affected by this Order shall include both existing funds, assets or other property, and funds, assets, or other property acquired after the effective date of this Order, except as described in Sections VIII and IX of this Order.

D. Maintenance of and Access to All Records Relating to the Business Activities and Business and Personal Finances

27. Defendants Tinoco and Kikit are restrained from directly or indirectly destroying, altering, or disposing of, in any manner any records that relate or refer to the business activities or business or personal finances of any Defendant in accordance with the Court's SRO and this Order.

28. Representatives of the Plaintiff Commission shall, with 24 hours' notice, be allowed access to inspect the records that relate or refer to the business activities and business and personal finances of Defendants Tinoco and Kikit, including, but not limited to, both hard-copy documents and electronically stored information, wherever they may be situated and whether they are in the possession of the Defendants Tinoco and Kikit or others; provided, however, that nothing in this Order shall be interpreted to allow Plaintiff or the Receiver access to communications, records or documents that are privileged as to Tinoco personally. To ensure preservation and facilitate meaningful inspection and review of records, Defendants Tinoco and Kikit shall allow representatives of the Commission to make copies of said documents and electronically stored information, and if on-site copying of documents and electronically stored information is not practicable, representatives may make such copies off-site. After any such off-site copying, Plaintiff shall promptly return the original documents and devices upon which electronic information is stored.

29. To further facilitate meaningful inspection and review, Defendants Tinoco and Kikit shall, to the extent not previously provided to or seized by the Commission, or the Receiver, promptly provide Commission staff with:

- a. the location of all records relating or referring to the business activities and business and personal finances of Defendants Tinoco and Kikit;
- b. all identification numbers and other identifying information for websites, cloud storage services, email and smartphone accounts, and all accounts at any bank, financial institution, or brokerage firm (including any introducing broker or futures commission merchant) owned, controlled or operated by Defendants Tinoco and Kikit, or to which the Defendants Tinoco and Kikit have access; and

- c. all passwords to, and the location, make and model of, all computers and/or mobile electronic devices owned and/or used by Defendants Tinoco and Kikit in connection with their business activities and business and personal finances.

30. When inspecting records that are subject to this Order, including those contained on computer(s) and/or other electronic device(s), the Commission shall undertake reasonable measures to prevent review of Defendant Tinoco's privileged communications and privileged documents by the Commission's attorneys and other staff who are part of the litigation team in this matter. Moreover, Defendants Tinoco and Kikit (or his counsel) shall promptly contact Plaintiff's counsel to assert any claims of privilege or other legal objection relating to the contents of any records that are subject to this Order and promptly cooperate with Plaintiff's counsel to develop reasonable protocols to isolate and prevent disclosure of claimed privileged materials to the Commission's attorneys and other staff who are part of the litigation team in this matter. However, except with respect to Defendant Tinoco's privileged communications and documents, nothing herein shall excuse Defendants Tinoco and Kikit from full and immediate compliance with this Court's Order permitting Plaintiff to inspect the books and records which relate to Defendants' business activities and their business and personal finances.

31. Nothing herein shall preclude Plaintiff from providing materials obtained from Defendants Tinoco and Kikit to any other government agency pursuant to a lawful access request by such agency.

E. Appointment of Receiver

32. Kelly Crawford, previously appointed by the Court as Temporary Receiver pursuant to the SRO, is appointed Receiver with the full powers of an equity receiver for Defendants Tinoco and Kikit and their affiliates or subsidiaries owned or controlled by Defendants, including but not limited to, Kikit & Mess Real Estate LLC and Kikit & Mess Exotics LLC (hereinafter referred to as the “Receivership Defendants”), and of all records, and all funds, properties, premises, accounts, income, now or hereafter due or owing to the Receivership Defendants, and other assets directly or indirectly owned, beneficially or otherwise, by the Receivership Defendants.

33. The Receiver shall be the agent of this Court in acting as Receiver under this Order.

34. The directions, authorizations, duties, and powers of the Temporary Receiver under the SRO are granted in full to the Receiver, Kelly Crawford, and incorporated in full herein as part of the Order.

F. Cooperation with the Receiver

35. Defendants Tinoco and Kikit and all other persons or entities served with a copy of this order shall cooperate fully with and assist the Receiver. This cooperation and assistance shall include, but not be limited to, providing any information to the Receiver that the Receiver deems necessary to exercising the authority as provided in this Order; providing any password required to access any computer or electronic files in any medium; and discharging the responsibilities of the Receiver under this Order, and advising all persons who owe money to the Receivership Defendants that all debts should be paid directly to the Receiver; provided, however, that the Defendants and other persons bound by this Order are not required to provide the Receiver Defendant Tinoco’s privileged communications or documents, and the Receiver shall take reasonable measures to ensure privileged communications or documents are not taken from Defendant Tinoco.

G. Turning Over Property to the Receiver

36. Upon service of this Order, and to the extent the Defendants Tinoco and Kikit have not done so pursuant to the SRO, and except when Defendant Tinoco makes a valid assertion of privilege, Defendants Tinoco and Kikit, and any other person or entity served with a copy of this Order, shall immediately or within such time as permitted by the Receiver in writing, deliver over to the Receiver, including but not limited to:

- a. Possession and custody of all funds, assets, property, and all other assets, owned beneficially or otherwise, wherever situated, of the Receivership Defendants;
- b. Possession and custody of records of the Receivership Defendants in connection with their business activities and business and personal finances, including but not limited to, all books and records of accounts, all financial and accounting records, balance sheets, income statements, bank records (including monthly statements, cancelled checks, records of wire transfers, and check registers), client lists, title documents and other records of the Receivership Defendants;
- c. Possession and custody of all funds and other assets belonging to members of the public now held by the Receivership Defendants;
- d. All keys, computer or cloud computing passwords, entry codes, and combinations to locks necessary to gain or to secure access to any of the assets or records of the Receivership Defendants, including but not limited to, access to the Receivership Defendants' business premises, means of communication, accounts, computer systems, mobile electronic devices or other property; and
- e. Information identifying the accounts, employees, properties or other assets or obligations of the Receivership Defendants.

H. Reasonable and Necessary Living Expenses for Defendant Tinoco

37. Defendant Tinoco, through his attorneys, shall provide to Plaintiff and the Receiver a written request for approval of living expenses, with sufficient information to ascertain his financial condition. This written request for approval of living expenses shall be made within ten (10) days of the entry of this Order. Tinoco shall also submit to an asset deposition to permit the Plaintiff and the Receiver to determine Defendant Tinoco's financial condition, including but not limited to funds, assets, and other tangible or real property, his compliance with the asset freeze order in the SRO and this Order, and his reasonable and necessary living expenses, unless the Receiver can otherwise be satisfied as to Defendant Tinoco's financial condition. Tinoco is not precluded from petitioning the Court to decide whether an asset deposition of Tinoco is unnecessary for the Plaintiff and Receiver to take in order to determine Tinoco's financial condition.

38. Within five business days of receiving the information about Tinoco's financial condition, the parties will negotiate in good faith for a carve-out for reasonable and necessary living expenses – on a monthly basis – to be generated solely from any prospective earnings, bonuses, and/or other after-acquired income from new employment as described in Section H, infra.

39. The Court will entertain an application for reasonable and necessary living expenses upon proper written submission by Defendant Tinoco. A proper submission requires that Defendant Tinoco file such application under oath with the Court and set forth in detail, fully substantiated by all relevant financial documentation, the amount of funds necessary to pay reasonable and necessary living expenses, a description of the expenses for which those funds are to be applied, a description of the assets sought to be used to pay such expenses, and a description of the derivation of such assets. Defendant Tinoco is not precluded from petitioning the Court to decide that an under-oath application is unnecessary to the determination as to his reasonable and necessary living expenses.

I. Restricted Business Activities and Employment for Defendant Tinoco

40. Defendant Tinoco wishes to seek gainful employment to cover his reasonable and necessary living expenses.

41. Only specific prospective earnings, bonuses, and/or other after-acquired income, salary, wages, commissions, dividends, draws, or other forms of compensation or passive income from any newfound employment or activity ("New Income") will be excluded from the restraints imposed by the Order for the limited purpose of covering Defendant Tinoco's agreed-to reasonable living expenses pursuant to the process described in Section H, supra, and subject to the restrictions in this Section.

42. Defendant Tinoco agrees that he will not engage in any activity related to securities, commodities, or derivatives, including, but not limited to soliciting, receiving, or accepting any funds from any person or entity for the purpose of purchasing, selling, or otherwise investing in precious metals, securities, commodities, derivatives, virtual currency, binary options, or foreign currency or receive any income, salary, wages, commissions, dividends, draws, or other forms of compensation or passive income from any person or entity engaged in said activities.

43. Within two days of securing any New Income, Defendant Tinoco shall provide the name and address of the employer, person, or entity, as well as the name of a contact person and telephone number from its personnel office to Plaintiff Commission and the Receiver.

44. Within ten days of this Order, Defendant Tinoco shall open a single new bank account in his name to deposit any New Income, and to withdraw such funds for reasonable and necessary living expenses as ordered by the Court. The Receiver shall be co-owner and have unfettered access to this new account. Within twenty-four (24) hours of opening such a new bank account, Defendant Tinoco shall provide complete information to the Receiver and Plaintiff

Commission about the account, including the name of the bank, address, telephone number, and account number.

45. Any and all other bank accounts in the name of either Defendant or in the name of Kikit & Mess Real Estate LLC or Kikit & Mess Exotics LLC shall remain subject to terms of the Order that prohibit Defendants from transferring, removing, dissipating, or otherwise disposing of any asset.

46. All dispositions of funds from the new bank account authorized by this Order, until further order of the Court, shall also be subject to monitoring by the Receiver. The Receiver is authorized to obtain copies of any and all bank statements.

J. Persons Bound by This Order

47. This Order is binding on any person who receives actual notice of this Order by personal service or otherwise and is acting in the capacity of an officer, agent, servant, employee, or attorney of Defendants, or is in active concert or participation with the Defendants.

K. Stay on Actions Against the Receivership Defendants

48. Except by leave of the Court, during the pendency of the receivership ordered herein, Defendants Tinoco and Kikit, and all other persons and entities are stayed from taking any action (other than the present action by the Plaintiff Commission) to establish or enforce any claim, right or interest for, against, on behalf of, in, or in the name of, the Receivership Defendants, the Receiver, receivership assets, or the Receiver's duly authorized agents acting in their capacities as such, including but not limited to, the following actions:

- a. Petitioning, or assisting in the filing of a petition that would cause the Receivership Defendants to be placed in bankruptcy;
- b. Commencing, prosecuting, litigating or enforcing any suit or proceeding against any of the Receivership Defendants, or any of their subsidiaries or affiliates, except that such actions may be filed to toll any applicable statute of limitations;

- c. Commencing, prosecuting, continuing or entering any suit or proceeding in the name or on behalf of any of the Receivership Defendants, or any of their subsidiaries or affiliates;
- d. Accelerating the due date of any obligation or claimed obligation, enforcing any lien upon, or taking or attempting to take possession of, or retaining possession of, property of the Receivership Defendants, or any of their subsidiaries or affiliates, or any property claimed by any of them, or attempting to foreclose, forfeit, alter or terminate any of the Receivership Defendants' interests in property, including without limitation, the establishment, granting, or perfection of any security interest, whether such acts are part of a judicial proceeding or otherwise;
- e. Using self-help or executing or issuing, or causing the execution or issuance of, any court attachment, subpoena, replevin, execution or other process for the purpose of impounding or taking possession of or interfering with, or creating or enforcing a lien upon any property, wherever located, owned by or in the possession of the Receivership Defendants, or any of their subsidiaries or affiliates, or the Receiver, or any agent of the Receiver; and
- f. Doing any act or thing whatsoever to interfere with the Receiver taking control, possession or management of the property subject to the receivership, or to in any way interfere with the Receiver or to harass or interfere with the duties of the Receiver; or to interfere in any manner with the exclusive jurisdiction of this Court over the property and assets of the Receivership Defendants, or their subsidiaries or affiliates.

49. Provided, however, that nothing in this section shall prohibit any federal or state law enforcement or regulatory authority from commencing or prosecuting an action against the Receivership Defendants.

L. Bond Not Required of Plaintiff Commission or the Receiver

50. As Plaintiff, Commission has made a proper showing under 7 U.S.C. §13a-1(b) that it is not required to post any bond in connection with this Order. The Receiver is similarly not required to post bond.

M. Authority of Receiver to Execute Order

51. The Receiver is hereby authorized to execute this Order on behalf of Defendant Kikit and undersigned counsel for Tinoco and Kikit have no objection to the Receiver entering into this Order on behalf of Defendant Kikit.

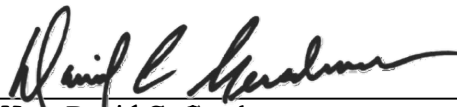

N. Force and Effect

52. This Order shall remain in full force and effect until further order of this Court, and this Court retains jurisdiction of this matter for all purposes.

O. Modifications to this Order

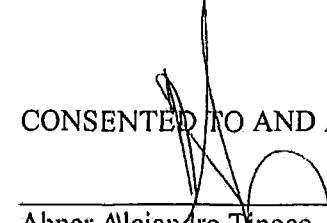

53. Nothing in this Order shall be construed as a waiver of Defendant Tinoco's right to file motions with the Court seeking modification of the assets included in the Receivership estate.
