STATUTORY RESTRAINING ORDER

On September 28, 2021, Plaintiff, the Commodity Futures Trading Commission (“CFTC” or “Commission”), filed a “Complaint for Injunctive Relief, Civil Monetary Penalties, and Other Equitable Relief” (ECF No. 3) and moved, by its “Motion for an Ex Parte Statutory Restraining Order, the Appointment of a Temporary Receiver and a Preliminary Injunction” (“Motion”) (ECF No. 7), pursuant to Section 6c(a) of the Commodity Exchange Act (the “Act”), 7 U.S.C. § 13a-1(a), and in accordance with Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 65, for an ex parte statutory restraining order freezing assets, allowing inspection of records, and appointing a Temporary Receiver. Having carefully considered the pleadings, declaration, exhibits, and memorandum filed in support of the Commission’s Motion, the Court finds that:

1. This Court has jurisdiction over this action under 28 U.S.C. § 1331 (federal question jurisdiction) and 28 U.S.C. § 1345 (original jurisdiction over civil actions commenced by the United States or by any agency expressly authorized to sue by Act of Congress). 7 U.S.C. § 13a-1(a) authorizes the Commission to seek injunctive relief against any person “[w]henver it shall appear . . . that any [such person] has engaged, is engaging, or is about to engage in any act or practice constituting a violation of any provision of [the Act] or any rule, regulation, or order [promulgated] thereunder.”

2. Venue properly lies with this Court pursuant to 7 U.S.C. § 13a-1(e).
3. The CFTC has made a proper prima facie showing that, since September 2020, and continuing through the present, Defendants Abner Alejandro Tinoco (“Tinoco”) and his Texas company, Kikit & Mess Investments, LLC (“Kikit”) (collectively, “Defendants”), have engaged in a scheme in which they have defrauded 61 clients, many of whom reside in Texas and the Southwest region of the United States and Mexico, out of at least $3.9 million.
4. The CFTC has made a proper prima facie showing that, since September 2020, and continuing through the present, Tinoco and Kikit fraudulently solicited and accepted money from clients for the purpose of managing their funds in “customized client portfolios” to trade in foreign exchange markets and cryptocurrencies. Furthermore, the Commission has made a prima facie showing that Tinoco and Kikit did not trade their clients’ funds in managed accounts; instead, they misappropriated the funds for Tinoco’s personal benefit or to pay bogus “profits” that they falsely reported to clients.
5. Considering the Commission’s prima facie showing, there is good cause to believe that Tinoco and Kikit, by and through its agents, principals and controlling persons, have engaged in, are engaging in, or are about to engage in:
  - a) fraud in connection with commodities transactions by misappropriation, misrepresentations, and material omissions, in violation of Section 4b(a)(1)(A) and (C) of the Act, 7 U.S.C. § 6b(a)(1)(A) and (C);

- b) fraud in connection with forex transactions by misappropriation, misrepresentations, and material omissions, in violation of Section 4b(a)(2)(A) and (C) of the Act, 7 U.S.C. § 6b(a)(2)(A) and (C), and Regulation 5.2(b)(1) and (3), 17 C.F.R. § 5.2(b)(1) and (3);
  - c) fraud by a commodity trading advisor, in violation of Section 4o(1)(A) and (B) of the Act, 7 U.S.C. § 6o(1)(A) and (B); and
  - d) fraud by use of a manipulative or deceptive device or contrivance, in violation of Section 6(c)(1) of the Act, 7 U.S.C. § 9(1), and Regulation 180.1(a)(1)–(3), 17 C.F.R. § 180.1(a)(1)–(3).
6. There is good cause to believe that immediate and irreparable damage to the Court’s ability to grant effective final relief for Defendants’ clients in the form of monetary or other redress will occur from the withdrawal, transfer, removal, dissipation or other disposition of funds, assets or other property (collectively, “assets”), and/or the destruction, alteration or disposition of books and records and other documents (collectively, “records”) by Defendants, unless Defendants are immediately restrained and enjoined by order of the Court.
7. Thus, there is good cause for the Court to freeze assets owned, controlled, managed, or held by Defendants or in which they have beneficial interest (collectively, “Defendants’ Assets”).
8. There is also good cause for the Court to prohibit Defendants from destroying, altering, or disposing of records, and/or denying representatives of the CFTC access to inspect records, when and as requested, to ensure that the Commission representatives have immediate and complete access to those records.

9. There is also good cause for the appointment of a Temporary Receiver to take control of all of Defendants' Assets, so that the Temporary Receiver may preserve assets, investigate, and determine customer claims, determine unlawful proceeds retained by Defendants and amounts due to customers as a result of Defendants' alleged violations, and distribute remaining funds under the Court's supervision.
10. There is also good cause to require an accounting by Defendants to the Temporary Receiver to determine the location and disposition of customer funds and ill-gotten gains. There is also good cause to order repatriation of assets controlled by Defendants so that such assets can be controlled by the Temporary Receiver and to assure payment of restitution and disgorgement as authorized by the Court.
11. In sum, the Commission has shown a likelihood of success on the merits and that there is a reasonable likelihood that Defendants will transfer or dissipate assets or destroy or alter records. It is therefore proper to grant an ex parte statutory restraining order freezing assets, allowing inspection of records, and appointing a temporary receiver.

Therefore, the Court orders the following:

I. DEFINITIONS

For the purposes of this Order, the following definitions will apply:

12. The term "assets" encompasses any legal or equitable interest in, right to, or claim to, any real or personal property, whether individually or jointly, directly or indirectly controlled, and wherever located, including but not limited to: chattels, goods, instruments, equipment, fixtures, general intangibles, effects, leaseholds mail or other deliveries, inventory, checks, notes, accounts (including, but not limited to, bank accounts and accounts at other financial institutions), credits, receivables, lines of credit, contracts

(including spot, futures, options, or swaps contracts), insurance policies, and all funds, wherever located, whether in the United States or outside the United States.

13. The term “records” encompasses “documents” and “electronically stored information” as those terms are used in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 34(a), and includes, but is not limited to, all writings, drawings, graphs, charts, photographs, sound recordings, images, and other data or other data compilations stored in any medium from which information can be obtained or translated, if necessary, into reasonable usable form. The term “records” also refers to each and every such item in Defendants’ actual or constructive possession, including but not limited to: (i) all such items within the custody or control of any agents, employers, employees, or partners of Defendants; and (ii) all items which Defendants have a legal or equitable right to obtain from another person. A draft or non-identical copy is a separate item within the meaning of the term. A record also includes the file and folder tabs associated with each original and copy.

14. “Defendants” means and refers to Defendants Abner Alejandro Tinoco and Kikit & Mess Investments, LLC.

II. RELIEF GRANTED

A. Asset Freeze

15. IT IS ORDERED that Defendants are immediately restrained and enjoined, except as otherwise ordered by this Court, from directly or indirectly withdrawing, transferring, removing, dissipating, or otherwise disposing of any assets, wherever located, including Defendants’ assets held outside the United States, except as provided otherwise in Sections II.D, II.E, and II.F of this Order, or as otherwise ordered by the Court;

16. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that notwithstanding the provisions of this Section II.A, at the request of the Temporary Receiver, Defendants and any other person who has possession, custody, or control of any of Defendants' funds, assets, or other property shall transfer possession of all assets subject to this Order to the Temporary Receiver in accordance with Sections II.D, II.E, II.F, and II.G of this Order.

17. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the assets affected by this Order shall include existing assets and assets acquired after the effective date of this Order.

B. Maintenance of and Access to All Records Relating to the Business Activities as well as Business and Personal Finances

19. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Representatives of the CFTC shall be immediately allowed to inspect any records relating or referring to the business activities or business or personal finances of Defendants, including, but not limited to, both hard-copy documents and electronically stored information, wherever they may be situated and whether they are in the possession of Defendants or others. To ensure preservation and facilitate meaningful inspection and review of records, Defendants shall allow representatives of the Commission to make copies of said documents and electronically stored information, and if on-site copying of documents and electronically stored information is not practicable, representatives may make such copies off-site. After any such off-site copying, the Commission shall promptly return the original documents and devices upon which electronic information is stored.

20. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that to further facilitate meaningful inspection and review, Defendants shall, absent a valid assertion of their respective rights against self-incrimination under the Fifth Amendment, promptly provide CFTC staff with:
- a) the location of all records relating to or referring to the business activities as well as business and personal finances of Defendants;
  - b) all identification numbers and other identifying information for websites, cloud storage services, email and smartphone accounts, and all accounts at any bank, financial institution, or brokerage firm (including any introducing broker or futures commission merchant) owned, controlled, or operated by Defendants, or to which Defendants have access; and

21. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that when inspecting records that are subject to this Order, including those contained on computers and/or other electronic devices, the Commission should undertake reasonable measures to prevent review of Defendants' privileged communications by the Commission's attorneys and other staff who are part of the litigation team in this matter. Moreover, Defendants or their counsel shall promptly contact CFTC counsel to assert any claims of privilege relating to the contents of any records that are subject to this Order and promptly cooperate with CFTC counsel to develop reasonable protocols to isolate and prevent disclosure of claimed privileged materials to the Commission's attorneys and other staff who are part of the litigation team in this matter. Nothing herein, however, shall excuse Defendants from full and immediate compliance with this Court's Order permitting the Commission to inspect the books and records which relate to Defendants' business activities and their business and personal finances.

C. Notice to Financial Institutions and Others that Hold or Control Assets or Records

22. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that to ensure the effectiveness of the asset freeze and pending further Order of this Court, any financial or brokerage institution, business entity, or person that receives actual notice of this Order and holds, controls, or maintains custody of any account or asset or other property of Defendants shall not, in active concert or participation with Defendants, permit Defendants or other persons to withdraw, transfer, remove, dissipate, or otherwise dispose of any of Defendants' assets, except as directed by further order of the Court.

As an alternative to allowing inspection of records, a financial or brokerage institution, business entity or other person may provide copies of records requested by the Commission.

25. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that any such financial or brokerage institution, business entity, or person that receives actual notice of this Order shall:

- a) within ten (10) business days of a request by the Temporary Receiver, or such longer period specified by the Temporary Receiver, provide the Temporary Receiver with copies of all records pertaining to any account or asset owned, controlled, managed, or held by, on behalf of, or for the benefit of Defendants, either individually or jointly, including, but not limited to, originals or copies of account applications, account statements, signature cards, checks, drafts, deposit tickets, transfers to and from the accounts, all other debit and credit instruments or slips, currency transaction reports, 1099 forms, and safe deposit box logs; and
